

Javier Eduardo Serrano Alvarado – AEM/Full Stack Java Developer

Experience Summary

- Experience AEM developer for implementation of responsive, headless, and SPA (Simple Page Application) solutions.
- Proficiency of Adobe AEM, HTL and React integrations to deliver high-quality solutions on the Adobe platform to create components, templates, and experience fragments.
- Knowledge in Java/Spring, MySQL, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript and React.
- Experience in implementing JUnit tests to ensure software quality and code maintenance.
- Proficiency in team collaboration tools.
- Improved work efficiency with agile model.

Technical Skills:

Backend: Adobe AEM, Java, Spring Boot, MySQL, Postman.

Frontend: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, React, Bootstrap, NVDA.

Tools: Git, Figma, Trello, Slack, Bitbucket, Jira, Confluence.

Professional Experience:

HCL Technologies (2024 - 2025)

Project Name – Verizon Straight Savings. Role - React Developer

Responsibilities:

- Worked as a React developer for implementation of frontend requirements with Adobe AEM backend.
- Developed reusable React components to enhance UI interactivity and responsiveness.
- Created servlets and APIs in coordination with AEM to allow dynamic data rendering on React components
- Debugged components to solve accessibility and rendering issues across browsers.
- Enhanced core components and ensured seamless integrations between React and AEM.

HCL Technologies (2023 - 2024)

Project Name – Verizon FCC. Role - AEM Developer

Responsibilities:

- Worked as an AEM developer for implementation of frontend and backend requirements.
- Created servlets to allow the user to retrieve data from the repository.
- Created workflows to automate processes and improve efficiency.
- Debug components to solve accessibility issues.
- Enhanced core components as per the requirements.
- Worked in Agile model for implementation of user stories and features using tools like Jira and Confluence.

HCL Technologies (2022 - 2023)

Project Name – Plug Power. Role - AEM Developer

Responsibilities:

- Worked as an AEM developer for implementation of frontend and backend requirements.
- Implemented AEM Editable templates, custom components to build the capabilities as per UX designs.
- Enhanced core components as per the requirements.
- Worked in Agile model for implementation of user stories and features.
- Utilized technologies like HTML, CSS, AEM Sightly framework and Java for backend services.

Generation Mexico (2021 – 2022)

Project Name – Easter Egg

Role - Java Developer

Responsibilities:

- Designed the original concept and the mockup, focusing on user interface and overall user experience.
- Developed various essential functions for the platform, ensuring its functionality and effectiveness.
- Implemented Bootstrap technology for frontend development, providing a stylized, modern user experience.

- Employed Spring Boot for backend development, enabling efficient data handling and seamless integration with the frontend

A Movil (2020-2021)

Responsibilities:

- Served as a telephone consultant and store manager, leading and organizing a team to meet sales targets.
- Acquired skills in conflict resolution and exhibited effective leadership in managing the team.
- Handled high-pressure situations, making good decisions in critical moments.
- Enhanced communication and negotiation skills, interacting with customers in an efficient and effective manner.
- Utilized effective sales strategies and product knowledge to drive sales and exceed set goals

Education Information:

- UVEG – Pursuing degree for engineering in software development

Contact Information -

- Mail id – contacto@javiersadev.com
- LinkedIn - <https://www.linkedin.com/in/javiersadev/>